MUNICIPAL ORDINANCE NO. 2022- 1639
(19th Regular Session)

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Road-widening project of the National Government under the administration of President Rodrigo has been overwhelming in the sense that it is implemented very diligently and speedily benefitting the general public.

Recently, the Municipal Engineering Department of the Local Government Unit informed the Local Chief Executive and the August Body that forty five graves in the Municipal Cemetery encroached the Road- Right of Way of the National Highway, thus the said remains have to be transferred the soonest possible time so that the project of the National Government will not be hampered.

Considering that some of the remains have just been buried recently, there is also a need to consult the Department of Health on the implication of the transfer so as not to jeopardize the health of those who will facilitate the transfer of said remains with an accompanying ordinance to wit;

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE IMMEDIATE TRANSFER OF THE FORTY FIVE REMAINS FROM THE OLD MUNICIPAL CEMETERY LOCATED AT PUROK II, TANKULAN, MANOLO FORTICH, BUKIDNON, WHOSE GRAVES ENCROACHED THE ROAD RIGHT OF WAY OF THE NATIONAL HIGHWAY AND NOW AFFECTED BY THE ROAD -WIDENING PROGRAM OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT, TO THE NEW PUBLIC CEMETERY ALSO OWNED BY THE MUNICIPALITY, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS MANOLO FORTICH MEMORIAL PARK (PANLUBUNGA TA MANOLO FORTICH).

BE IT ORDAINED by the Sangguniang Bayan in assembled session that:

SECTION 1. All the remains of the forty five constituents buried at the old cemetery at Purok 2, Tankulan, Manolo Fortich, Bukidnon whose graves encroached the road- right of way and subsequently affected by the road-widening program of the National Government shall be transferred the soonest possible time.

SECTION 2. All the cost of transfer of the remains affected by the Road-Widening Program of the National Government shall be free of charge and all impositions, charges and fees shall be waived by the Municipal Government to ensure the smooth flow of transfer of said remains.

SECTION 3. The authority of the Municipal Health Office to exhume and transfer said remains shall likewise be obtained first by the Municipal Government before the actual transfer of the subject remains to ensure the safety and health of the personnel to facilitate the transfer of said remains. Health protocols must be strictly observed in the eventual exhumation and transfer of the subject remains.

SECTION 4. Before the actual transfer, the closest relative of the remains to be transferred must be informed at least Five Days before the actual exhumation and transfer of the remains.

SECTION 5. This ordinance shall take effect upon its approval.

This ordinance was passed and enacted on motion of Hon. Reynaldo L. Bagayas, Jr. duly seconded by all of the members present.
