RESOLUTION NO. 2006-16
(8th Regular Session)

RESOLUTION URGENTLY REQUESTING AND APPEALING TO MADAM CORAZON DE LA PAZ, CEO AND PRESIDENT – SOCIAL SECURITY SYSTEM, TO INTERCEDE AND POSTPONE THE SCHEDULED BIDDING OF FORECLOSED HOUSING UNITS OF PINEAPPLE COUNTRY HOMES IN DAMILAG, MANOLO FORTICH, BUKIDNON SCHEDULED ON MARCH 9, 2006.

WHEREAS, 60 more or less housing units of the Pineapple Country Homes are scheduled to be offered for public bidding on March 9, 2006;

WHEREAS, the primordial reason for the failure of the concerned homeowners to pay their monthly amortizations resulting to the scheduled bidding of the foreclosed housing units is due to their unexpected retrenchment from their employment from Del Monte Philippines thereby automatically also terminating their monthly deductions to the SSS;

WHEREAS, while some of the homeowners have availed of the restructuring program of the SSS, still they are hard put or more over incapable of paying the restructured amount due to the compounded interest and penalties added to their housing loans which have spiraled to about 300% over the original loaned amount;

WHEREAS, some of these homeowners are now widows and in the twilight of their lives, with no much financial sources to bank on and just surviving to cope up with their most basic medical and physical needs and requirements;

WHEREAS, giving these homeowners more time and space to cope up with their loan obligations with much reasonable and affordable monthly housing loan payments would not only address their urgent appeal but more importantly put more impetus to the "home for the homeless" program of the government as part of the 10 point agenda of the administration of now President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo;
