RESOLUTION NO. 2022-109B
(10th Regular Session)

RESOLUTION URGENTLY REQUESTING A WRITTEN CLARIFICATION FROM THE LAND TRANSPORTATION FRANCHISING AND REGULATORY BOARD
(LTFRB), REGIONAL OFFICE 10, ON WHETHER THE ROUTE OF THE LIBONA
TRANSPORT COOPERATIVE (LIBTRANSCO) TRAVERSES MANOLO FORTICH, BUKIDNON AND THROUGH WHICH SPECIFIC ROAD OR ROADS IN THE MUNICIPALITY TO FINALLY SETTLE THE ROUTE DISPUTE AMONG THE TRANSPORT GROUPS IN THE AREA AND MORE IMPORTANTLY, FOR THE GUIDANCE, SAFETY AND COMFORT OF THE RIDING PUBLIC.

WHEREAS, early in July 2022, the LIBTRANSCO deployed a fleet of modernized transport units that presently ply the Libona to Cagayan de Oro City route passing through Camp Phillips, Damilag and Alae, within the Municipality of Manolo Fortich, Bukidnon and picking-up passengers along the way;

[Handwritten initials]

WHEREAS, other public utility transport associations operating along the same road objected to LIBTRANSCO's route and questioned the legality of its operations in the municipality;

WHEREAS, on July 29, 2022, the Manolo Cagayan Transport Corporation (MACATRANSCO) launched its owned modernized transport vehicle units, which also operates along the contested route;

WHEREAS, the route dispute between the LIBTRANSCO, on one hand, and MACATRANSCO and other Manolo Fortich based transport operators along the Camp Phillip - Damilag - Alae road on the other hand, has resulted to incidents of heated verbal confrontations between and among their drivers, conductors, barkers and dispatchers;

WHEREAS, even worse, the riding public is now affected with some passengers already feeling harassed and threatened by the transport group confrontations which have become frequent and more violent;

WHEREAS, to finally settle the route dispute and to ensure the safety and comfort of the riding public, there is a need for a written clarification from the LTFRB, Regional Office, on the exact route of the LIBTRANSCO.

WHEREAS, it is also worthwhile inquiring from the LTFRB if it is within the authority of the LGU of Manolo Fortich to set and prescribe the detailed way points, drop-off/pick-up points and terminal locations of LIBTRANSCO, or such other similar transport groups, within the Municipality of Manolo Fortich, Bukidnon, if, indeed, the transport group's route traverses the town's area of jurisdiction;

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of Hon. Jay S. Albarece and unanimously seconded by the members present, it was RESOLVED,

AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, Urgently Requesting A Written Clarification From The Land Transportation Franchising And Regulatory Board, Regional Office 10, On Whether The Route Of The Libona Transport Cooperative (LIBTRANSCO) Traverses Manolo Fortich, Bukidnon And Through Which Specific Road Or Roads In The Municipality To Finally Settle The Route Dispute Among The Transport Groups In The Area And More Importantly, For The Guidance, Safety And Comfort Of The Riding Public.

RESOLVED FURTHER that, in case the LIBTRANSCO's approved route indeed traverses the Municipality of Manolo Fortich, to likewise request the LTFRB for a written advice as to whether the LGU of Manolo Fortich, Bukidnon has the authority to prescribe and detailed way, drop-off and pick-up points of LIBTRANSCO or other similar transport groups within the community.

APPROVED: September 22, 2022.
