constituents while it always involves the stakeholders in the advocacy on education for all.

WHEREAS, as a college, is therefore mandated to provide quality industry-needed educational programs administered and delivered by highly qualified, well-trained and self-renewing faculty and staff with adequate human and financial resources, CHED compliant facilities where a vibrant institutional research culture run across all disciplines and where all stakeholders and members are respected, valued, nurtured, and challenged to lead in the development and implementation of collaborative community extension programs to improve the local communities.

WHEREAS, to pursue the mandate of NBCC, it was tasked by the Commission on Higher Education to prepare an Institutional Development Plan that will translate its mandates into its vision, mission, goals and objectives. The Institutional Development Plan includes the Library Development Plan that will be the focus of the local government's investments and support to the community college in the next five years.

WHEREAS, the plan is a product of the implementation, and re-evaluation of the previous 5-year development plan for the period 2014-2018. The updated institutional development plan shall cover the period 2019-2024.

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of the Hon. Evelio E. Cordovez and unanimously seconded by the members present, it was RESOLVED,

AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, Institutionalizing The Institutional Development Plan Of The Northern Bukidnon Community College.

RESOLVED FURTHER that copy of this resolution be furnished the Office of the Commission on Higher Education for its reference.

APPROVED: March 5, 2020.
